

JESUITS

USA East

Major Gifts Officer (Remote) USA East Province of the Society of Jesus Mid-Atlantic Region (Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington DC)

THE INSTITUTION

The USA East Province of the Society of Jesus is one of four Provinces of the Society of Jesus in the United States and one part of the worldwide body of Jesuits. The Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) is a Roman Catholic order of priests and brothers founded in 1540 by the soldier-turned-priest, Saint Ignatius Loyola. In the vision of their founder, they seek to “Find God in All Things” and commit themselves to the “Greater Glory of God.” The Jesuit mission has long been dedicated to:

- Spreading the Gospel
- Reaching out to those on the margins
- Educating men and women for others

With close to 17,000 priests and brothers worldwide, the Jesuits are the largest male religious order in the Catholic Church. They are pastors, teachers, and chaplains. They are also doctors, lawyers, and astronomers, among many other roles in the Church and society. In their varied ministries, they care for the whole person—body, mind, and soul. The USA East Province is the largest province in the Jesuit Conference of Canada and the United States, comprising 580 Jesuits, 10 colleges and universities, 30 middle and high schools, 18 parishes, 4 retreat centers, and 2 international schools.

Jesuits draw on the rich tradition of Ignatian Spirituality. They offer resources to all who want to discern God’s presence in their lives. Through this lens, the Jesuits work tirelessly to advance social justice and peace. Among the marginalized and seemingly forgotten in cities and throughout the world, Jesuits can be found advocating on their behalf.

From universities and schools to prisons and outreach centers, to refugee camps in the poorest of nations, the Jesuits and their lay partners can be found “going where the need is greatest.” In the United States, they are most known for teaching, ministering, and living the Jesuit mission in service to others through:
